

This certificate is presented to:

Sarah Green

Middle Managers : Health & safety toolkit for managers (part 7) - adverse events

Date completed: 06/11/2023

Learning Aims	This eLearning module has been designed to provide useful Health and Safety information and signposting to the various tools that are available to support you in your managerial role.
Learning Outcomes	When you complete this section you will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Understand what is meant by the term adverse event- Understand the importance of reviewing and recording health and safety related adverse events- Understand the various available tools that can help you with your teams health and safety performance monitoring arrangements- Understand your managerial responsibility to report certain types of adverse events to the Health and Safety Executive
Estimated Completion Time	15 minutes
NHS Knowledge and Skills Framework (KSF)	C1: Communication C2: Personal and people development C3: Health, safety and security C4: Service improvement G1: Learning and development HWB1: Promotion of health and wellbeing and prevention of adverse effects to health and wellbeing