Dear all

Many thanks for you help with the vascular STP teaching last week.

I am extremely sorry to those of you who were unable to teach due to the university cancelling the session. In the past you haven't needed a contract if you are not taking payment, and this was not made at all clear by the university. I am very unimpressed that it was cancelled at such short notice and I apologise for the inconvenience this must have caused you. I believe they do want to rearrange those sessions if possible.

For those of you that did manage to teach - thank you and I hope it went well. Please let me know if you have any feedback/things that could be improved.

Kind regards

Hi Hannah,
it went well thanks.

The students seemed to enjoy it and they all said they'd learned something new.

Hope your sessions have been a success

Anna :)
