

Supervising and training Postgraduate Diploma student in vascular ultrasound

Venue: Vascular Ultrasound Department at Salisbury District Hospital.

Date: 14/7/2023

Key areas covered during the supervision/training.

A). How to write your vascular research proposal and dissertation.

- Develop the aims and objectives of the research project.
- Explain ethical considerations that apply to the area of the research project.
- Complete a literature review of chosen area of research.
- Develop relevant research questions.
- Formulate a detailed plan for the research project.
- Determine appropriate research methods for the research project.
- Conduct the research using identified research methods.
- Analyse the data and present findings.
- Formulate recommendations related to the chosen research topic
- Reflect how own research findings substantiate initial literature review.
- Make recommendations related to area of research.
- Identify potential uses for the research findings within practice.

B). Procedures and Scans Training:

1. DVT
2. Carotid scan
3. Scanning arteries and veins.

C). Quality Assurance Procedures in our Department.

D). General Discussion