

Submission by Richard Harrison for Winter 2017 CPD Examination

Download

Answers

Richard	The subsequent guidelines published that were based on the outcome of the CREST trial mentioned in this paper, suggested that CAS was equivalent to CEA for symptomatic patients.	ti
Harrison	Kerber et al mentioned in this paper published the first report on carotid artery balloon angioplasty in which year?	1
ric.kharrison1982@hotmail.com	The ICA stenosis threshold for symptomatic patients eligible for stenting was 80%.	fi
4 Apr 2017, 12:06 p.m.	A 2.3 % perioperative carotid endarterectomy stroke risk and death was seen in which trial mentioned in this paper?	4
	For a tortuous ICA an open cell stent was selected for use in this study.	ti
	One patient was excluded from this study owing to target vessel occlusion.	fi
	For the reproducibility of artery volume measurements the SD of differences between single measurements was 0.08ml	fi
	Which of the following patient samples were NOT excluded from the study?	F 4
	The ultrasound beam was steered automatically through a 60 degree sagittal arc over the region of interest to acquire 3D data.	fi
	With reference to the studies results which of the following statements is FALSE?	A y
	A larger interslice distance was used to increase the accuracy of plaque volume measurements.	fi
	The patient clinical parameters of this study showed that 16 out of the 48 male patients were known to have diabetes.	fi