

Josephine Whitaker has completed this personal reflection on 04/03/2020

Paper: Winter CPD Questions 2020

Personal Reflection:

Two very good articles on venous disease and assessing for reflux in perforating veins. Reading the articles has proved a helpful reminder to include diameters of perforating veins in the ultrasound report. There may be further improvements in the future in identifying incompetent perforating veins which require treatment. Reading and answering the CPD questions helps to keep my knowledge current and up to date