

Anne Wilcox has completed this personal reflection on 17/05/2018

Paper: Spring 2018 CPD Questions

Personal Reflection:

Learning resource excellent with clear anatomical information and good explanation of the management of the different types of TOS. In particular the emergence of endovascular therapies over the last decade.

I found the articles useful as they reaffirm the advantages and disadvantages of DUS. Our TOS protocol is the same as the scanning described in Vascular Thoracic outlet Syndrome paper. They also give good explanations of other imaging modalities.

It is always helpful to have an overall knowledge of diagnosis and management for the conditions for which we provide diagnostic scans.