

Steven Wallace has completed this personal reflection on 11/12/2018

Paper: Autumn 2018 CPD questions

Personal Reflection:

Spiral laminar flow isn't something that is readily thought of when discussing haemodynamics to students and trainees. The relationship between this flow pattern and disease processes, LDL suppression and side-branch perfusion is an interesting discussion point along with the discovery of the variation in the direction of the rotation. I will direct the students to this paper when discussing flow dynamics to students as a point of research/further reading.