

Penelope Gill has completed this personal reflection on 22/06/2023

Paper: Winter 2022/23 CPD questions

Personal Reflection:

Review of diagnosing stenoses in AVF and AVG highlighting the difficulties of obtaining accurate measurements in fistulas and how beneficial for the patients it is if good accuracy can be achieved.

Interesting article on venous stenting in Venous Thoracic Syndrome patients who have received decompression first showing favourable results in this method of treatment.