

implementation in her scanning techniques.

I observed her continuous progress in scanning and procedural competency.

she has performed the required number of scans independently and according to the departmental protocols.

Amiy is confident but aware of any limitations and asks for help when needed.

I am sure she will succeed in her practical exam.