

Amy is able to identify and discuss vascular pathology and identify and discuss anatomy. Amy has demonstrated ability to take relevant patient history and use appropriate techniques during the scans. Amy also recognizes the significance of these observations made during the scan and who to report them to.